To whom it may concern,

Re: Harleen K. Dhillon, CPA, CGA

This is to confirm that Harleen K. Dhillon, CPA, CGA is a member in good standing of the Chartered Professional Accountants of British Columbia (CPABC). Harleen was admitted into membership on May 1, 2016.

In accordance with CPABC bylaws, "in good standing" means, in respect of a member of CPABC, that the member holds current membership that is not suspended and has not been cancelled under the Chartered Professional Accountants Act.

In BC, legislation to unify the legacy professional accounting bodies - the Institute of Chartered Accountants of BC (ICABC), the Certified General Accountant Association of BC (CGA-BC), and the Certified Management Accountants Society of BC (CMABC) - into CPABC came into force on June 24, 2015.

This information is current as at the date of this letter. For the most up-to-date listing of members in good standing, please refer to the CPABC member online directory at www.bccpa.ca.

Please contact me should you require further information in this regard.

Yours sincerely,

Robert Bansal, CPA, CMA, MA
