To Whom It May Concern,

I am pleased to write this letter of recommendation for Foresight Money Matters Tax & Bookkeeping and its founder, Harleen Dhillon, CPA. As the finance department, corporate tax accountant, and day-to-day bookkeeper for Workflow Optimize, Harleen and her team have played a critical role in ensuring the financial health and compliance of our company.

Foresight Money Matters has been instrumental in managing our corporate tax filings, bookkeeping, financial reporting, and budgeting. Their expertise ensures that we stay compliant with tax regulations while optimizing our financial strategy to support our business growth.

Beyond their technical expertise, what truly sets Foresight Money Matters apart is the way they work. Harleen and her team are not just accountants—they are trusted advisors who genuinely care about their clients' success. They are approachable, thoughtful, and highly supportive, ensuring that complex financial matters are explained in a way that's easy to understand. Their clear communication and proactive approach have been invaluable, helping me navigate decisions with confidence.

I wholeheartedly recommend them to any business looking for a knowledgeable, trustworthy, and detail-oriented financial partner. Their commitment to their clients is exceptional, and I wouldn't want to work with anyone else.

Please feel free to contact me for further information.

Sincerely,
